(Verse 1)

I remember the days when we were young and free,
Chasing dreams in the summer, just you and me.
With the sun on our faces, we danced through the night,
Every whisper of love felt so perfectly right.

(Chorus)

So hold my hand, let's take this chance,
In a world so wide, we'll find our dance.
Through the storms and the shadows, we'll shine so bright,
With you by my side, everything feels right.

(Verse 2)

From the laughter we shared to the tears that we cried,
Every moment together, it's a beautiful ride.
When the nights get colder, and the stars start to fade,
I'll be your shelter, in the love that we made.

(Chorus)

So hold my hand, let's take this chance,
In a world so wide, we'll find our dance.
Through the storms and the shadows, we'll shine so bright,
With you by my side, everything feels right.

(Bridge)

And if the road gets rough, if we lose our way,
I'll remind you of the promises we made that day.
We're more than just a moment, we're a story to unfold,
In the heart of the chaos, our love will be bold.

(Chorus)

So hold my hand, let's take this chance,
In a world so wide, we'll find our dance.
Through the storms and the shadows, we'll shine so bright,
With you by my side, everything feels right.

(Outro)

So here's to the journey, wherever it leads,
With you in my heart, I have everything I need.
In the laughter and the silence, in the joy and the fight,
With you by my side, everything feels right.
